

My ANGEL of the FLAMING CROSS

Song By Byron
Gay

PUBLISHED BY
SUNSET PUBLISHING CO.
NEW YORK
PLAZA MUSIC CO.
NEW YORK
SOLE SELLING AGENTS

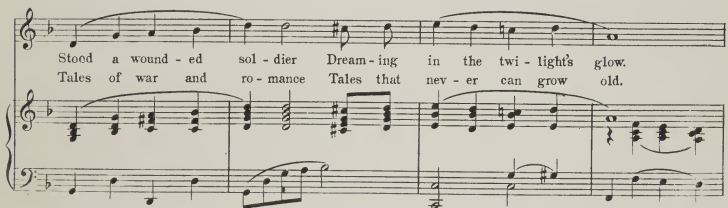

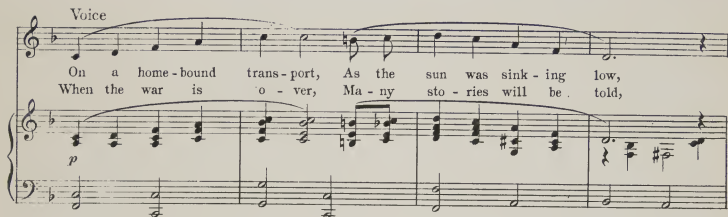

My Angel Of The Flaming Cross

Words and Music by
BYRON GAY

Moderato espressivo

Voice

sail - or lad "Why are you so sad" Said the sol - dier "I'll tell you?"
best of all is the sol - diers call, Sweet— Red Cross Girl to you.

Refrain

There's an an - gel o - ver there An an - gel from I know not where gva.....

Smil - ing sweet - ly thru her tears She drove my fears a - way.

Lit - tle girl who nursed me thru, I owe my life to you Oh Come back,

Love that I found— and lost My An - gel of the Flam - ing Cross. Cross— gva

The Most Beautiful Song of the Season Will Live Forever

A Soldier's Dream Words and Music by J. H. C. G. S.

Refrain

dreams of a home and mother at the dreams of the night gone by A soldier's heart the tears The heart of the boy's dream with its life to its the dreams of the field of "The Man" and then the lights of the night A light the night And the will not be bright Be the life of the heart the gone
For the soldier's heart the
the heart of the night

As Sung by Madame SCHUMANN-HEINK For Our Boys of the Army and Navy

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE